DESIGN CONCEPT | 设计理念

Have you ever dreamed of your own tree house from childhood? You could climb up and down happily, overlook on high or hide secrets in there. This house is 23 sqm with a height of 3.6m, which is small but high. The designer combines the two features with the tree house concept, making them become design highlights. Simple things can present a textured sense better. Through space cutting, the limited area is divided into a few floors. The designer brings modern and aesthetic elements into the space, extracting the purity of scenes from life and interpreting the concise temperament of the small space.

小时候，你可曾梦想拥有自己的树屋？可以开心地爬上爬下、登高远望、收藏秘密。7坪（23m²）挑高3.6m的空间，我们将空间里小与高的特性，结合树屋的概念，作为设计的趣味和亮点！越简单的东西，越能表现质感，设计师震

撼感官的垂直量体切割，将有限区域铺展成无限递进式的纵升空间，并通过空间手法导入现代美学元素，提炼生活场景的纯度，诠释小空间的简约大气。
